About us

Linglott was born after two friends from different parts of the world realised the amount of struggle that goes to lea adapting to a different culture.

A struggle that doesn't involve grammar rules or vocabulary memorisation, but one that involves having a hard time learn and where the best and most importantly, accessible teachers are. After spending a couple years trying differe enough is enough and then Linglott was created to fill this gap.

Our mission is to allow people from all over the world to immerse themselves into a different culture.

Our vision is to be the go-to place for students and companies looking to learn another language or another culture.

Our values:

Friendly lessons

Our lessons should always be friendly and light-hearted.

Simple environment

No hassle involved in any of the steps of learning with us.

Cultural importance

Cultural aspects should always be the one of our top priorities.

Learning should be fun

Our lessons are more like an hour spent with a friend.

We also learn with our students

Our classes are never one-sided, we are always learning.
